OFFICERS HAD LOOT

The Sacred Things From Churches of Manila.

THE FAMOUS "BLACK CHRIST"

Customs Watched for it While Buford Was in Honolulu.

When the transport Buford was recently in this port the customs authorities kept a very close watch of the vessel. They had learned that there was all kinds of loot aboard and the only chance they would have to take it in tow would be if a person on board the transport attempted to take it ashore. But as no effort was made to land it here the stuff was not secured. On the vessel's departure for San Francisco word was sent to that city of the supposed loot. The San Francisco port authorities are making every effort to secure it. The papers give a number of stories relative to the loot.

Nothing has caused so much distrust among the natives or inspired the Filipinos with such illwill toward Americans as the ruthless destruction of churches and the confiscation of church property. There is now on the Buford or on its way across the ocean a wonderful piece of statuary revered with almost superstitious awe by the natives of the province of Laguna, in the island of Luzon. For two centuries at least it has been known in the native language as the "Black Christ," because it is an ebony figure of the Savior. The face is of ivory and over the head there is a halo of solid gold. It is said to be a wonderful piece of carving, recalling in some measure the composite figures of some of the Greek sculptors, who occasionally used other stones, different colored marbles and jewels to give life-like appearance to their statues. It is not so much, however, the intrinsic value of the "Black Christ" as the veneration in which it is held that makes its loss so keenly felt by the Filipinos. With this statue two silver statues of the Virgin Mary were carried off, as well as the sacred vessels and altar furnishings, sacerdotal vestments and church ornaments.

This stuff is said to be the property of a number of officers of the Eighth Infantry and some of the principal objects are believed to be in the possession of Captain Stuard, who, however, was a purchaser in good faith, having secured the articles in Manila, where they were offered for sale.

The soldiers tore to pieces the particular church in the province of Laguna where the "Black Christ" was enshrined and nearly all the loot appeared at intervals in Manila shops, offered for sale. In this manner the officers of the Eighth Infantry secured the articles that may now be confiscated.

About two years ago attention was drawn to the fact that loot from Manila, particularly from churches in Luzon and from other places in the Philippine Islands, was being shipped to San Francisco and offered for sale. The exposure checked the unlawful business for a time, but now it seems to have broken out again. Defenses are not lacking for the vandalism and sacrilege, and it will be alleged that the figures were being used as idols and were being worshiped by the natives, who paid an admission fee to see them; that they are intended for West Point, where they could not be received, and that they are not of any particular value.

Some of the officers condemn the looting very severely, others wink at it. In the meanwhile, however, the Government will take a hand in deciding the question of ownership—when the articles have been seized.

A Man Hater.

ST. LOUIS, September 9.—Mrs. Addie Johnson, National Suffragist leader, who committed suicide here yesterday, maintained her inexorable attitude toward men to the very end. In a clearly written ante-mortem statement to the Coroner, found today, Mrs. Johnson said:

"Do not let my body be polluted by the touch of men any more than can possibly be helped. The law should provide women coroners and women undertakers for women. I must repeat, there should be women coroners to handle dead women. You will agree about that if you are a good woman. As there are none such, let men handle me as little as possible, please."

His soft answer: Angry mother—"Now, Bobby, don't let me speak to you again!" Bobby (helplessly)—"How can I prevent you, mamma?"—Boston Globe.

Crying for Help

Lots of it in Honolulu But Daily Growing Less.

Backache is one of the first indications of kidney trouble. It is the kidneys' first cry for help. Heed it.

Doan's Backache Kidney Pills are what is wanted.

Are just what overworked kidneys need.

They strengthen and invigorate the kidney; help them to do their work; never fail to cure any case of kidney disease.

Read the proof from a Honolulu citizen.

Mr. Charles Conroy, of Cyclomere street, this city, one of the many persons who have tried Doan's Backache Kidney Pills with great advantage, relates his experience thus: "I have been a hack driver for a number of years past and this is an occupation in which, through exposure to weather and much jumping up and down from the vehicle, one is particularly liable to kidney complaint. I suffered myself from a lame back for a long while, and in my anxiety to get rid of it tried several things which did not reach the root of my trouble. An advertisement acquainted me with what grand work Doan's Backache Kidney Pills were doing, and I got some of them at the Hollister Drug Co.'s store. I used them and with very much profit, for they relieved my back wonderfully."

Doan's Backache Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers or sent by mail on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, by the Hollister Drug Co., Honolulu, wholesale agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

Remember the name Doan's and take no other.
